

PRACTICE NOTE NO. 56

To avoid different nomenclatures and confusion, it is decided to introduce the practice of registering applications in proceedings as Interim Applications for short I.A. It has been notified that Criminal Application is the nomenclature assigned to the main matter. The interim proceedings therein are also registered as Criminal Applications. To avoid the chaos after Computerization, the Advocates and parties appearing-in-person are hereby informed that all interim applications (Civil) and interim applications (Criminal) other than Bail Applications and Anticipatory Bail Applications, shall be filed and numbered in the Registry as interim application in the main proceedings. Interim application number will be yearwise (for example I.A. No.1 of 2019 in W.P. (Civil) No. 2001 of 2015). In case of Bail Applications in Appeals, it will be filed and numbered as Bail Application in Appeal No. The Criminal Application u/s 482 Cr.P.C. will be registered as Criminal Application (Main Matter). All interim applications will be registered as I.A. (Criminal) No.....

It is further informed that the implementation of abovementioned procedure for filing and numbering of interim applications (Civil) and interim applications (Criminal) in main proceedings will be effective from 1st September 2019.
